The rule

Stays the same in all five	Maggie. Denise. The mechanism. The product. The guarantee. The results. Word for word.
Changes	The hook. One line in the pattern beat. The 2am search. The CTA. The close. The image.
How many scenes	Three to five under one angle.
When to spend	When two of them beat baseline. One is luck.
When to find a new angle	When four or five have failed.

Every scene below is already in the script you wrote. None of them are new ideas. They are buried at beats 3, 4, 6 and 7 where only the people who read that far ever see them.

The five scenes

#	Scene	Buried at	Status
01	The surgery countdown	Beat 6	Live, the control
02	Beaten by a sock	Beat 4	Briefed, no result yet
03	The side she cannot sleep on	Beat 4	Written, ready to brief
04	The groceries he does without telling her	Beat 7	Not written
05	The kerb outside her own house	Beat 3	Not written

The five, written only the lines that move

01 - THE SURGERY COUNTDOWN - LIVE, THE CONTROL

1 Hook	The 14 month wait for my hip replacement turned out to be the best thing that ever happened to me, because by my surgery date I no longer needed it.
6 Search	"bone on bone alternatives"
17 CTA	So if you are lying awake right now with that ache on the side of your hip, dreading a date on a calendar, I want you to know something.
19 Close	I wish someone had told me eighteen months ago. So now I am telling you.
Image	The hospital letter, still in its envelope, unopened on the kitchen bench.

02 - BEATEN BY A SOCK - BRIEFED, NO RESULT YET

1 Hook	I sat on the edge of my bed for eleven minutes one morning, holding a sock. Sixty four years old, and I could not reach my own foot.
6 Search	"hip pain can't bend to put shoes on"
17 CTA	So if getting dressed has become the hardest part of your morning, I want you to know something.
19 Close	I put my socks on standing up now. Nobody notices. I notice every single time.
Image	One sock on the floor beside an unmade bed, morning light. Nothing else in frame.

03 - THE SIDE SHE CANNOT SLEEP ON - WRITTEN, READY TO BRIEF

1 Hook	I have not slept on my right side in over a year. Not one night. The second my hip touches the mattress it feels like someone pressing their thumb into a deep bruise.
6 Search	"best position to sleep with hip arthritis"
17 CTA	So if you are reading this on the side you can still lie on, waiting for it to be late enough to get up, I want you to know something.
19 Close	I sleep on my right side now. That is it. That is the whole thing. That is what I got back.
Image	An unmade bed before dawn. One side slept in, the other flat and untouched. One lamp still on.

04 - THE GROCERIES HE DOES WITHOUT TELLING HER - NOT WRITTEN

1 Hook	My husband started doing the grocery shopping without telling me, so I would not feel like I had to come along. I noticed. I never said anything.
6 Search	"how to stop being a burden to your family"
17 CTA	So if someone in your house has quietly started doing things for you, and neither of you has mentioned it, I want you to know something.

1 Hook	My husband started doing the grocery shopping without telling me, so I would not feel like I had to come along. I noticed. I never said anything.
19 Close	I did the shopping on Saturday. John did not say anything either. He did not have to.
Image	Two shopping bags on the kitchen bench, her car keys beside them, unused.

05 - THE KERB OUTSIDE HER OWN HOUSE - NOT WRITTEN

1 Hook	I went to step off the kerb outside my own house and my hip just gave out. I grabbed the fence so hard I scraped my palm.
6 Search	"why does my hip give way suddenly"
17 CTA	So if you have started watching the ground instead of where you are going, I want you to know something.
19 Close	I stepped off that same kerb this morning without thinking about it. That is the part nobody warns you that you lose.
Image	The kerb from her eye line, empty street, early morning.

Everything not listed here is copied across from the control untouched. That is roughly 900 of the 1,100 words.

The order

- 03, the sleep one, next. It is rank 2 of 12 desires and the payoff is already written into beat 14 of the control.
- 04, the groceries, after that. The quietest loss in the script and nobody in the category names it.
- 05, the kerb, last. Strongest research behind it but nothing written for that cluster yet, so highest variance.
- One at a time. Same audience, same budget, same landing page as the control.
- Kill at CPA above $60 after 50 clicks. Scale under $44.

Lock the angle. Change the scene. Nothing else.
